

Raleigh Convention Center Directions

From I-40: Take exit 298B (South Saunders Street) toward Downtown Raleigh. Turn right (at the exit) onto South Saunders Street. Stay in the right hand lane. South Saunders splits and the right lanes become McDowell Street. You will see the RCC in front of you.

If you need to go directly to Parking: From McDowell Street, turn right onto Cabarrus Street. Raleigh Convention Center will be on the right. Entrance to parking is on the left at the intersection of Gale Street.

If you need to drop off items first, you can pull up to the covered doors on the right. Afterwards, make a U-turn on Cabarrus St, to get the parking garage entrance on Gale St. Instead of the U-turn, you may also proceed straight, and make a right turn on Salisbury St, and a left onto Lenoir and park in the garage on the left.
